Graduation Ceremony

SAINT JOHN HIGH SCHOOL

SUNDAY, JUNE TWENTY-THIRD
Two Thousand and Thirteen

Saint John High School Faculty 2012-13

Once again we arrive at the divergence of the road. Our new graduates move on to newer challenges and surprises, while we staff members turn our thoughts to summer, and inevitably, the changes which autumn will bring.

This year Don McGinnis has been on sick leave; we look forward with hope to his return in the fall. In his absence, Loredana Andriani and Cynthia Badiuk were a great asset in the Resource Room. Regrettably, they will be leaving at the end of the school year. We hope they will someday soon join us at SJHS for good.

Trish Gallagher and Maureen Desmond were on deferred leave in the second semester, during which time they had many shared adventures. In their places we were fortunate to have Lisa McLaggan as our music teacher, choir director, and music director, while Stacey Wood became our interim WinSchool wizard.

Patrick Doherty served us admirably in the English department first semester. Once again, Brianne White has been a stalwart staff member on a D contract; her expertise will win her a permanent position in the near future.

In the fall we will be joined by Ries van Beek, a teacher of Social Studies and English Literature, currently employed at Belleisle High.

From our custodial staff, Ron Gavin is retiring to work on more renovation projects. Sue Humphries, our mellifluous airport announcer, looks forward to more travel. Lydia Tong, a long-time Educational Assistant, retired at the beginning of the year and reports that retirement is very good.

And finally, Bill Mahaffy, chemist and Scout extraordinaire, will be leaving a big gap in our roster for the fall.

We wish all of our staff, both teaching and support, a restful summer — you've earned it!
