

PROCESS FOR REGISTERING INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ANGLOPHONE SOUTH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Anglophone South School District (ASD-S) is pleased to welcome students from around the world to study in our schools.

ALL REGISTRATIONS SHOULD BE DONE THROUGH THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OFFICE.

Please email (Lynn.MacDonald2@gnb.ca) or call (506-658-3019) to make an appointment with the International Student Coordinator, Lynn MacDonald if you:

- are not a Canadian citizen
- are a Provincial Nominee
- have a Permanent Residency
- need a study Permit
- are a Parent with a Work Permit or a Study Permit
- are a refugee

For your information:

- The street where you live will determine the school your child will go to. If there is no space in that school, you will be assigned to another school by the International Student Coordinator.
- Parents cannot choose the school their children will attend.
- Acceptance is based on available space, so please apply early.
- Students will be placed in an English classroom at the grade level that corresponds to their age and/or previous education.
- Final enrollment decisions are made by the School District and in some cases, may change after the student arrives.

IMPORTANT FACTS FOR STUDENT STUDY PERMITS/VISAS

1. Apply Early. It takes many weeks for CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION to prepare your Student Study Permit.
2. You must have an address in Anglophone South School District (ASD-S) for your child to go to school. You can send your application while you look for a home. Your child will be assigned to a school when you have a New Brunswick address.

3. Parents, legal guardians or agents/brokers can apply to ASD-S on behalf of students. ASD-S staff will talk to, or mail information to, one contact person for each student.
4. Complete, print, and sign the application form on this website.
5. You cannot get a Student Study Permit until you have an "Official Letter of Acceptance" from Anglophone South School District. This will be issued once the following is received:
 - Application is received and if possible, all supporting documentation
 - The non-refundable application fee of $250.00 Cdn. is paid by cheque, money order or bank draft, made payable to Minster of Finance. Sorry we do not accept electronic transfers or credit cards.
6. An appointment must be made with International Student Coordinator, Lynn MacDonald (lynn.macdonald2@gnb.ca or 506-658-3019) upon arrival to New Brunswick to complete the application process. DO NOT REGISTER AT THE SCHOOL.
7. Tuition fee is due on or before student starts school. Must be paid by cheque, money order or bank draft made payable to the Minister of Finance. Sorry we do not accept electronic transfers or credit cards.
8. Students applying for acceptance will be enrolled in a specific school only when they have a destination address in Anglophone South School District. Students who don't have an address when they apply will be placed in a specific school after they arrive.
9. Anglophone South School District reserves the right to deny acceptance to applicants.

B) Permanent Residents

- Permanent resident students do not pay tuition

Coming to Canada

- Before arriving in the New Brunswick area, please contact our School District Office to tell us you are coming and make an appointment so we can welcome you and help you register for school.
Phone: 506 658-3019 or Email: lynn.macdonald2@gnb.ca
- Bring all your original documents to your appointment. We will complete registration at your appointment.
- You can visit your new school, after your appointment. Students may start school 2 days following registration.

Refund Policy

Full or partial refunds will be made under the following conditions:

- If Canadian Immigration does not approve the student visa, students may apply in writing for a refund of tuition only. Immigration documents must be attached.
- If you become a permanent resident, you will get a pro-rated refund. The refund begins the month after you get permanent residence status for example, if you become a permanent resident on October 14, your refund is from November 1st.
- Refunds are for tuition fees only. The application fee of $250.00 will not be refunded.

French: All students in New Brunswick must study French.

International students have many new things to learn about their new home and school.

Making new friends and speaking a new language takes time and patience.

Parents and teachers should remember that a student's school performance may be temporarily affected by so many changes in their lives.
